

Dawn Renee Hennessy Sorry it took u thirteen years to realize that. He destroyed our life and sad to say the rest of his kids lives too. I'm just glad I was able to keep him away and honestly I hope he dies in prison.

Dawn Renee Hennessy I'm also glad I learned a lot and gained a lot of confidence in myself I was lacking at that age. I've raised great kids who want for nothing and are genuine and caring. I did it in my own and I'm proud that they are who they are and we raised above the torture and a use from him. I tried to save Alexa, I tried to push charges, I never lied and for a long time I tried to get him to get help. He's a monster and he deserves whatever he gets. I just hope that Alexa gets the help she needs to overcome the years of abuse she suffered and gets a chance at a fresh start cuz that's what she needs.

Harold Daniels By the time that I kicked him out of here, I knew that he had been lying, but didn't know about the sexual abuse. He destroyed the house, never paid any rent. I wasted $10,000.00 on him. And am stuck with a mortgage on a . house that is not livable

Dawn Renee Hennessy He was both physically and sexually abusing Alexa and not sure about Katie after I left although there were suspicions. It doesn't surprise me. Nothing does.
